

With the start of another school year, this brings with it new staff and at times new challenges. Your elected Union representatives are committed to engaging with members face-to-face in order to ensure accurate information and messaging is being presented and to address any questions or concerns that you may have.

Please see the following schedule to know when and where your Union President, 1st & 2nd Vice Presidents, and Chief Shop Steward will be hosting a meeting at your work site.
